Holocaust Overview

Holocaust Overview	Removal of Rights	Segregation	Extermination
The Holocaust was a genocide that took place during World War II, in which up to 17 million people were systematically exterminated by Nazi Germany and its collaborators. Around 6 million Jews were killed, in addition to Romani peoples, ethnic Poles and Slavs, homosexual men, and many other groups. The Holocaust took place in several stages:	The Nuremberg Laws (1935) meant that Jews were fired from jobs, forced to wear a yellow Star of David, stripped of German citizenship, and banned from German schools, amongst many other measures. 	Jews were forced out of their homes and into ghettos. The ghettos were filthy, with poor sanitation, and were extremely overcrowded. Food supplies were low, and so many people starved to death. 	Victims were sent to concentration camps, where many were forced to work in hellish conditions, where many died. Others were sent to the gas chambers. Later, camps opened for the sole purpose of extermination.

Important Events and Life in the Concentration Camps

Germany is defeated in World War I		After WWI, many Germans were angry; many did not approve of the Treaty of Versailles, which placed blame with Germany. The country was also poor in the post-war era, going through an economic depression.	When? 1918 onwards	Key Fact: In the Treaty of Versailles, Germany lost significant land to France, Belgium and Poland.
Hitler Rises to Power		Poor and disheartened post-war Germany provided a perfect platform for Hitler to grasp power, promising to make Germany strong again. With strong leadership and oratory skills, he rose to become Chancellor of Germany.	When? Around 1945-1949	Key Fact: Hitler was an
The Warsaw Ghetto		The Warsaw Ghetto was the largest of all of the Jewish ghettos in German-occupied Europe during WWII. 400,000 Jews were imprisoned in only 1.3sq mi. of space. 392,000 died, either in the ghetto or after being transported to camps.	When? October 1940 to May 1943	Key Fact: There was an average of 9.2 people per room in the Warsaw Ghetto
Prisoners Arrive at Auschwitz		Auschwitz was first constructed to house Polish political prisoners, who began to arrive in May 1940. From early 1942, Auschwitz II became a major extermination site. 1.3 million people were sent there, of whom 1.1 million died.	When? Operational between May 1940 and January 1945	Key Fact: 90% of the prisoners killed in Auschwitz were Jews. The camp was staffed by 7,000 SS soldiers.
The Final Solution		The Final Solution was Nazi Germany's plan for the genocide of all Jews. This resulted in the deadliest phase of the Holocaust, in which 2/3 of the Jews across Europe were killed.	When? Formulated in Jan 1942 at the Wannsee conference	Key Fact: About 2/3rds of the total number of Jews killed were already killed before Feb 1943
Camps Liberated		As the Allies advanced across Europe, they found camps of sick, starving prisoners. The first camp liberated was Majdanek in July 1944, Auschwitz wasn't until January 1945.	When? Late 1944 – Early 1945	Key Fact: Many of the prisoners were so weak that they died trying to digest their first meal.
Hitler's Suicide		With the Germans facing defeat, Hitler married his long-time love Eva Braun on 29 th April. The next day, they committed suicide, reportedly by gunshot, although historians are unsure.	When? 30 th April 1945	Key Fact: Some sources believe that Hitler died by poisoning himself.
Germany Surrenders		The Allies had gradually forced the surrender of Axis troops across Europe in April and early May, 1945. On 7 th May, Germany officially surrendered to the Allies, bringing to an end European fighting in WWII.	When? 7 th May 1945	Key Fact: VE (Victory in Europe) Day is still held every 8 th May.
Deportation and Transportation		Prisoners were treated like cattle, herded onto crowded trains and locked inside for days as they travelled. Most had no light, food or drink, and only a bucket to use as a toilet.	What? Prisoners had to stand with their hands above their heads to make space.	Key Fact: Many of the very young, old and sick died because of the inhumane conditions.
Clothes		After being separated from their families and registration, prisoners had their clothes stripped, their heads shaved, and were given a striped uniform and striped cap to wear.	What? Prisoners were only allowed to change their clothes once every 6 weeks.	Key Fact: Clothes were often stripped off dead prisoners and reused.
Food		Prisoners, received very little, if any, food. Watery soup was a staple lunch meal, with stale bread sometimes provided for dinner.	What? The bread was supposed to last the prisoners for breakfast, too.	Key Fact: Prisoners reported taking bread from those who had died in the night.
Work		Most prisoners worked outside doing heavy duty jobs such as factory or construction work. They often had to walk miles to work. Due to the insufficient food they were given, and widespread disease, many became too weak to work. They were then shot by SS soldiers.	What? The prisoners provided free slave labour for many German companies.	Key Fact: The life span of those working in the crematoriums was about 4 months.

Key People

Adolf Hitler (1889-1945)

Adolf Hitler was a German politician who was the leader of the Nazi party, Chancellor of Germany from 1933-1945, and the Führer of Germany from 1934-1945. As Germany was unstable following World War I, Hitler began to gain a loyal following through his populist ideas, powerful speeches and charisma. He believed that the superior 'Aryan' race was under threat from 'inferior' Jews, disabled people, and other minorities. When he gained power in 1933, Hitler immediately began implementing policies to ensure an 'ethnic cleansing' of Germany - making him the chief initiator of the Holocaust. Seeking 'Lebensraum' (living space) for Germans, he also ordered the invasion of Poland in Sep 1939 which triggered World War II, the most deadly mass conflict in history. As a result, he has become one of the most reviled people to have ever lived. He committed suicide on 30th Apr 1945, with his wife, as the war was lost.

Heinrich Himmler (1900-1945)

Heinrich Himmler was the 'Reichsführer' (Chief of SS police) throughout Hitler's reign, and was considered as his deputy. He was responsible for the formation of both the Nazi death squads and the extermination camps. A committed anti-Semite himself, it is believed that many ideas involving the Holocaust were actually Himmler's. Realising the war was lost, Himmler tried to negotiate with the Allies without Hitler's knowledge. He committed suicide in British custody.

Anne Frank (1929-1945)

Anne Frank was a German-born Jewish girl, who wrote a diary about the time that her family fled Germany and hid in an attic, in Amsterdam in the Netherlands. After years in hiding, they were arrested, and taken to concentration camps. Anne died of Typhus in Bergen-Belsen, only weeks before the concentration camps were liberated. The only survivor from her family, Otto, (her father) published her diary after her death. It has now become one of the most well-read texts in history.

Dr Josef Mengele (1911-1979)

Dr Josef Mengele was an SS officer and physician in Auschwitz concentration camp. He performed many deadly human experiments on prisoners, gaining the nickname 'The Angel of Death.' He was also involved in the selection of prisoners for death, which others reported he 'seemed to enjoy.' At the end of the war, he escaped capture, dying a free man in Brazil years later.

Oskar Schindler (1908-1974)

Oskar Schindler was an industrialist and member of the Nazi party, who is credited with saving 1,200 Jews during the Holocaust. He initially employed Jews in the interests of profit, but soon forged bonds with them, and showed initiative, courage, and dedication to save them. As time went on, he had to give Nazi officials increasing bribes to keep his workers safe.
